COSHH Awareness

COURSE OVERVIEW

As part of an overall safety system, all staff need to understand the dangers associated with hazardous substances, their potential for causing injury, ill health and damage and the means for protecting themselves and others. It is a requirement of the COSHH Regulations that staff receive appropriate information, instruction and training in the handling of hazardous substances.

COURSE CONTENT

- ✓ Identifying potential dangers of hazardous substances, and the need to comply with employers practices and procedures
- ✓ Recognising hazards
- ✓ Identifying appropriate safety measures for those activities that are covered by a general COSHH assessment
- ✓ Housekeeping, general chemical safety
- ✓ Personal protective equipment and uses
